language and impair their children's ability to learn language. I have a 6-year-old daughter who is a native speaker of Spanish and is currently learning English. She is a very bright child and is doing well in school. However, she is having difficulty understanding and using English in social situations. I am concerned that this might be a sign of a language disorder or a learning disability. I would like to know if there are any tests or interventions that can help her improve her English skills and if there are any resources available for parents of bilingual children.
