if it's honestly about Russell (dunno about that because he hasn't wanted to give it away for months) then explaining why you want to give it away might just make it worse.

The repetitive behavior typically begins at two or three years of age and can sometimes be extreme during the preschool years.

In some cases, based on your treatment response, clinics may transfer 2 or 3 at most.

Jew hatred was never a big force in America anyways.