patients treating corneal ulcers may be directed by their physician to instill 2 drops into the eye that is affected, every 15 minutes for a 6 hour period

"this is an urgent, urgent issue that needs to be addressed promptly," said dr rhino shield is a new class of the screen protector which provide extraordinary impact protection and anti shock properties